Shanghai Option

The courses offered in Shanghai are intensive courses and taught by NUS professors from Singapore. They are offered in 2 to 3-week blocks. NYU@NUS students are only allowed to register for the balance number of NUS courses required in Semester 2. In general, this means between 2 to 3 courses which translate to about 2 to 3 months in Shanghai.

The estimated cost of living in Shanghai is as follows (in Singapore dollars):

Item	Estimated Cost (S$)
Return air ticket between Singapore & Shanghai	Between $1,200 to $1,500
Visa costs; health & medical check-ups (if applicable)	$300
Accommodation (per month) – student hostel or Accommodation (per month) – shared private apartment	$500 Or $1,000
Food, transport, entertainment & other expenses (per month)	$500 (if you spend frugally); Or $1,000 for some luxury

Private Accommodation

A few of the International Business Law (IBL) alumni and other NUS students who have completed IBL courses in Shanghai have used the service of a rental property agent in Shanghai – Ms Ava Yu. They were fairly satisfied with her service and recommended her services to future students. Her telephone numbers are +86 18621597410 and +86 15618033112. Her email address is ava.yu.miao@gmail.com; website at www.lotusprops.com.

Please note that NUS and the alumni are not receiving any commission for the recommendation.

Some students also recommended the Shanghai City Central International Youth Hostel (www.hostelshanghai.cn).

Website of the LLM (IBL) Alumni
The alumni of the IBL programme has set up a website providing useful information about the programme, as well as life in Shanghai – http://www.nusiblalumni.com/ . You may be able to find some useful tips from the contributions posted on the site.
