Yulia Andreeva

Yulia Andreeva is an associate in the New York office of Debevoise & Plimpton LLP and a member of the firm's litigation department. Her practice focuses on international arbitration and litigation.

Ms. Andreeva joined Debevoise in 2004. From 2001 to 2003, she clerked for the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague, The Netherlands, where she worked on large interstate disputes and international commercial arbitrations. In 2004, Ms. Andreeva graduated with a Master of Laws in International Legal Studies degree from New York University, where she was a Hauser Global Scholar. She also received a Master of Laws in Public International Law degree from Leiden University, The Netherlands, in 2001. In 2000, she received a Specialist in Law (equivalent of J.D.) degree cum laude from the Urals State Law Academy, Russia.

In 1999, Ms. Andreeva received the National Award of the President of the Russian Federation for exceptional academic and professional achievements in law. She is a Gold Medal winner of three All-Russian legal competitions in private and public international law and several regional competitions in legal studies. Ms. Andreeva has authored several publications in English and Russian, and, between 2001 and 2005, she served as an editor of the Leiden Journal of International Law.

Ms. Andreeva is a member of the Bar of New York and she is admitted to practice law in the Russian Federation. She serves as a Vice Chair of the Russia/Eurasia Committee and a Vice Chair of the International Courts Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of International Law. In 2006-2007, she served as a Vice Chair of the Section's UN and International Institutions Coordinating Committee. Yulia is a founding member of the ArbitralWomen Association and a Vice Chair of the Women's Interest Network of the American Bar Association's Section of International Law. She is a member of the Global Advisory Board of the International Center for Dispute Resolution Young & International and a member of the Arbitration Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. In 2005-2006, she served as a New York representative to the ICCA 18th Biennial International Arbitration Conference Organizing Committee. Yulia is fluent in Russian and English.

Ms. Andreeva can be reached by telephone at +1 212 909 6369 and by e-mail at yandreeva@debevoise.com.