Recommendation

For applicants who submit recommendations electronically, this form is not required.

To the Applicant

Please complete the first part of this recommendation form and give it to a law professor (or professional reference) who is writing a letter of recommendation for you. You should include an envelope, addressed to you. When you receive the sealed envelope with the recommendation and form, do not open it or break the seal. Simply forward it to us. If the enclosed documents are in a language other than English, a certified translation is required, and you must follow the instructions in the Graduate Admissions Information and Application Instructions.

If your recommender prefers to send the form and recommendation directly to us, the envelope you provide to the recommender should be addressed to New York University School of Law, Office of Graduate Admissions, P.O. Box 904, New York, NY 10276-0904.

Name of Recommender

To the Recommender

The applicant named above has applied for admission to the New York University School of Law Graduate Division. The Committee on Graduate Admissions would appreciate your frank appraisal of this applicant's abilities and potential for graduate studies. Letters of recommendation are extremely helpful in selecting the best candidates from a large group of well-qualified applicants. Your evaluation of the applicant's intellectual strengths or weaknesses (e.g., analytical abilities and written and oral precision and fluency) would be particularly helpful to us.

Please reply promptly since the application will not be reviewed until your letter is received.

Complete the information below, enclose your recommendation with this form in the envelope provided, seal the envelope, sign across the seal, and return it to the student. The student will send the envelope to us unopened. If you prefer not to send your recommendation by way of the applicant, you may send it directly to: New York University School of Law, Office of Graduate Admissions, P.O. Box 904, New York, NY 10276-0904.
