Personal Statement and Supplemental Information

Please include your name and social security number and/or LSAC Account number on all supplemental pages. Please clearly identify your personal statement and any supplemental information. (Please electronically attach.)

Optional Additional Information

The Committee on Admissions encourages you to provide any information that may be helpful to us in reaching a thoughtful decision on your application. While the choice as to whether and what information to submit to the Committee is entirely yours, any information you provide will be used to give you full credit for your accomplishments, to help the Committee reach an informed decision on your application, and to aid the Committee in selecting a diverse student body.

Information that has been helpful in the past includes, but is not limited to, descriptions or documentation of disabilities, a detailed history of standardized test results, unusual circumstances which may have affected academic performance, or personal/family history of educational or socio-economic disadvantage. This list is not all-inclusive, but we offer it for you to think about as you consider whether such information might be relevant in your case, and to assure you that including it is quite appropriate.

You may attach a separate brief statement or electronic attachment including any such information. Please clearly identify any additional information that you choose to submit.

Please include your name and social security number and/or LSAC Account number on all attached pages or electronic attachments.

Application materials and all supporting documents submitted in connection with an application for admitted students who enroll at NYU School of Law become part of the students' law school records and are subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
