

Friday, March 12, 2010

6:00 p.m.

Lecture

“The (im)possibility of global governance?
An unsolved intellectual puzzle in a multi-level,
multi-jurisdictional world”

by Wolfgang Kerber

(University of Marburg /DAAD-NYU Visiting Fellow)

Wolfgang Kerber is Professor of Economics at the Philipps-University Marburg, Germany. He has done research in competition economics, evolutionary and innovation economics, institutional economics, law and economics, and European integration. Currently, his main fields of research are (1) European and international competition policy and (2) multi-level legal systems and regulatory competition.

This event is sponsored by the

DAAD

42 Washington Mews
New York, NY 10003

www.deutscheshaus.as.nyu.edu

dh
deutsches haus
at NYU