

The Grunin Prize for Law and Social Entrepreneurship Submission Form (PDF)

To apply for the Grunin Prize or to nominate another party's project, you must complete the Grunin Prize submission form located at <http://www.law.nyu.edu/centers/grunin-social-entrepreneurship/grunin-prize>. To guide your preparation, we invite you to use this PDF of the submission form.

Please note that:

- The Grunin Prize aims to recognize a specific project or solution developed by a lawyer or legal team to advance the fields of social entrepreneurship and impact investing.
- Applicants and nominators can submit more than one project for consideration. A separate submission form must be completed for each project.
- Applicants and nominators are welcome to resubmit a previously nominated project that meets the eligibility criteria and has not received the Grunin Prize.
- If nominating another party's project, nominators must coordinate with nominees to ensure all required information is provided in the submission form.
- Supplemental materials will not be accepted. However, as needed, applicants and nominees may be asked to provide additional information for consideration by the judging panel.
- Once notified, finalists will be expected to (i) participate in an interview with the judging panel and (ii) liaise with NYU Law's Office of Communications to coordinate a communications plan and develop a Grunin Prize video.
