

The Bickel & Brewer Latino Institute for Human Rights Symposium at NYU School of Law

The Latino Child and the Law

Friday, November 7, 2014 | 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. | Lipton Hall

Photo "Proclamation Ceremony" by Cliff1066,
licensed under Creative Commons 4.0

Program

- NETWORKING BREAKFAST FOR SPEAKERS AND ATTENDEES

- THE LATINO CHILD, IMMIGRATION REFORM, AND THE HUMANITARIAN CRISIS

A surge in unaccompanied child arrivals has highlighted the need to reexamine relevant US policies. Immigration practitioners and experts will discuss current conditions and proposals for legal reform.

- THE LATINO CHILD AND JUVENILE JUSTICE REFORM

How do we improve a justice system that disproportionately incarcerates Latino youth? Panelists will discuss the status of federal and local juvenile justice legislation and new proposals for addressing systemic inequalities.

- KEYNOTE ADDRESS AND LUNCH FOR SPEAKERS AND ATTENDEES

- THE LATINO CHILD AND ACCESS TO QUALITY PRE-K THROUGH 12 EDUCATION

Education attorneys and policy experts will discuss recent decisions on public school finance, Latino access to school board elections, and the campaign for universal preschool education's impact on the Latino community.

Click here to RSVP by October 31, 2014. Registration is free (including breakfast and lunch) but seating is limited. CLE credit will be offered pending approval. Program is subject to change.