Welcome!

Letter from the 2014 Co-Chairs

Thank you for joining us for the 20th Annual Public Service Auction at New York University School of Law. On behalf of the over 400 students who will benefit from your support tonight, we welcome you to Vanderbilt Hall for what promises to be a memorable evening.

Twenty years ago, a group of NYU Law students set out to organize a student-run auction that would fund public service summer internships. The 1994 auction was a smashing success, and, since then, the Public Service Auction has become one of our school's most beloved traditions. The Auction is instrumental to NYU Law's commitment to providing guaranteed funding to any law student who interns for a nonprofit or government organization during their 1L or 2L summer. Last year, the Auction raised over $75,000 to provide grants to NYU Law students volunteering in public interest positions across the globe. We hope to do even better this year, thanks to your generous support.

NYU's determination to support every student who pursues the public good doesn't just create amazing opportunities for students. It also makes a vital contribution to our local and global communities. Each summer, NYU students work in fascinating and important fields—from children's advocacy to environmental protection to providing services to low-income families. The theme of this year's auction is 20 Years of Service. In honor of that theme, you'll notice stories and pictures from past summer internships displayed throughout Greenberg Lounge, Kushner Lounge, and the Tishman Atrium.

The Auction is the result of significant generosity on the part of businesses, law firms, faculty, and alumni, the ingenuity of student committee members and volunteers, and the dedication and support of the entire law school community. It simply could not happen without the support of so many, and we are truly grateful to everyone who made a contribution, whether large or small. Thank you, everyone, for all of your hard work and generosity.

Tonight is also a chance for the entire law school community—students, faculty, staff, alumni, family, and friends—to share the evening and enjoy the time together. At NYU, we are a "private university in the public service," and we will celebrate it tonight.

Peruse the alumni, student, and faculty donations that make our auction unique and fresh every year. Hear performances from NYU Law's a cappella group Substantial Performance and student-founded band Champagne Friday. Join in the excitement of the live auction, with a fabulous team of auctioneers – Dean Trevor Morrison, Professor Cynthia Estlund, and Professor Samuel Issacharoff. Most of all, enjoy the evening!

Thank you so much for coming. Happy Bidding!

Bidding Instructions

Generally

In order to bid, you must register online at: <https://apps.law.nyu.edu/pilcauction/>. This will provide you with a bidder number. This can be done before the auction, or if you have not registered online prior to the auction, you may fill out the above online form at the registration tables in front of Kushner Lounge (next to the grand staircase in the Vanderbilt Hall entrance).

Silent Auction

When bidding on an item, please write your name, bidder number, and the amount of your bid in the appropriate increment on the bid sheet associated with the item. You must have a bidder number for your bid to be considered valid.

For certain items, if you would like to guarantee that you win an item, you can use the Guaranteed Buy-Out Option. At the bottom of certain bid sheets is a line labeled "guaranteed buy-out." The guaranteed buy-out price may be more than the value of the item, but if you choose to use this option, you are guaranteed to win that special item you've got your eye on. (This also means that if the guaranteed buy-out line is already filled out, the bidding on that item is closed.) And remember, every penny that you spend goes to support NYU students doing important work through their public interest summer internships!

When the announcement is made at 9:30 P.M. that the silent auction has closed, the highest bid at that time will be the winning bid. Winners will be notified by e-mail.

Live Auction

If you wish to place a bid, please raise your card so that the auctioneer can read your bidder number. Please keep your card up until the auctioneer recognizes you. If you are the highest bidder for an item, an auction representative will approach you to confirm your bid. If you prefer to pay for live auction items by cash or check, please be prepared to do so at that time.

50/50 Raffle

Win up to $25,000! Raffle tickets cost $100 and up to 500 tickets will be sold, both prior to the auction and at the auction. Half the pot goes to the auction and the other half goes to the winner. Details TBA.

Redemption of Won Items

All winners will be notified via email as to pick-up instructions in the days following the auction. Please note: All auction gift certificate expire on March 1, 2015, unless otherwise noted. All items or certificates not picked up from an auction representative by April 1, 2014, will be considered forfeited. Individuals will still be charged for forfeited items. If you have any questions, please email the auction chairs at nyupilcauction@gmail.com.

Mystery Boxes

Each Mystery Box is full of fun and unique items, and while the contents of each mystery box are a surprise until you buy it, you can choose from four fun themes: House Party, Going Out, Shopping Spree, and Treat Yourself. Dining Out

- DO-001 Dinner for Two – Carbone (Greenwich Village)
A gift certificate for dinner for 2 with house-selected wine at one of New York’s best restaurants. In the words of a gushing NY Times review: “It is a fancy red-sauce joint in Greenwich Village as directed by Quentin Tarantino, bringing back the punch-in-the-guts thrills of a genre that everybody else sees as uncultured and a little embarrassing, while exposing the sophistication that was always lurking there. Carbone has a technical prowess that can make you giddy; a lust for excess that can, at times, make you a little queasy; and an instinct for sheer entertainment that makes a lot of other restaurants seem like earnest, unimaginative drones.”
- DO-002 2 Tickets to a Wine Tasting Class – Vintners Room (Tribeca)
This certificate, worth $150.00, entitles the bearer plus one guest to a wine tasting class at The Vintners Room. The Room is a retail wine shop located in the heart of Tribeca which specializes esoteric wines and interactive wine classes.
- DO-003 $100 Gift Certificate – ACME Restaurant (Greenwich Village)
Enjoy a $150 gift certificate for dinner at ACME Restaurant, the “indisputably hip new downtown brasserie” that has "rigorous, just-plucked freshness that separates [it] from the fashionably rustic restaurants that keep popping up, relentlessly, around town," according to New York magazine.
- DO-004 Brunch – Hecho en Dumbo (Greenwich Village)
Brunch for 4 at Hecho en Dumbo, known for its tapas.
- DO-005 $100 Gift Certificate – le Zie Trattoria (Greenwich Village)
$100 gift certificate for a meal at le Zie, a Venetian trattoria.
- DO-006 Dinner – McCormick & Schmick’s (Midtown)
Seafood dinner for 2 at McCormick & Schmick’s, worth $100.
- DO-007 $100 Gift Certificate – Tacombi (SoHo)
"A Stateside facsimile of a beachside operation that launched five years ago in Playa del Carmen," and a critic's pick at New York Magazine, this unique restaurant serves a variety of different tacos at various stations through a funky interior that is a "transporting change of pace on the downtown dining circuit." This $100 Gift Certificate will get you approximately 25 tacos.

- DO-008 Dinner for two – Mulberry Street Bar (Little Italy)
Have a complete dinner for two (appetizer, entrée, beer/wine, and espresso coffee) at Mulberry Street Bar. At least that's the popular wisdom: Donnie Brasco, The Sopranos, and Law & Order have all set scenes in this bar.”
- DO-009 Dinner for Four – Burger Joint (Greenwich Village)
Gift certificate for four people - burgers, fries, soda/beer, worth $64 – at this Greenwich village institution.

- DO-011 $50 Gift Certificate – Josie’s Restaurant (Midtown)
Josie’s serves the best of New American cuisine, with a focus on healthy and wholesome ingredients.
- DO-012 $50 Gift Certificate – Olio e Piu (West Village)
If you’re a pizza fanatic then you want to try out Olio e Piu, which advertises itself as “something the West Village hasn’t had in a long time – an authentic Neapolitan restaurant” striving to “conjure the smells and tastes that fill the streets of southern Italy” by “making gourmet pizzas and genuine Neapolitan dishes in a wood-burning brick oven.”
- DO-013 $40 Gift Certificate – La Villa Pizzeria & Restaurant (Park Slope)
Using the very best Italian ingredients, with mozzarella milk made on the premises, this Neapolitan restaurant has received rave reviews.
- DO-014 $50 Gift Certificate – Lotus Blue (Tribeca)
This gift certificate covers dinner for two, including drinks but excluding tip. This is one of the few Yunnanese restaurants in the city. Yunnan is a region in the southwest corner of China and features cuisine with a tropical bent. According to New York Magazine review: “Yunnan is known for its many varieties of mushrooms, and a tempura fry shows off several: delicious, salty, and spicy, with basil garnish. ... [S]ave your taste buds for the delicate hot pot chicken... Also, don’t miss the charred prawns with candied olives or a tasty fried rice with ground pork and cubes of turnip. ... For dessert, if you dare, try the puffs filled with durian, a fruit so pungent it’s banned from public transit in its native Southeast Asia.”

- DO-015 2x $25 Gift Certificates – Pazza Notte (Midtown)
Praised by NY Magazine for “inspired cuisine,” “The mainly Italian menu stresses generously apportioned appetizers, two of which can make a meal. Brick-oven pizzas flaunt crisp yet pliant crusts and ample, savory toppings like prosciutta di parma with buffalo mozzarella. Pazza Notte is such a crowd-pleaser, nobody's ever heard of it.”

$50 gift card for breakfast, burgers, shakes and more at EJ’s Luncheonette, which boasts to have the best breakfast on the Upper East Side.

With a large selection of microbrews on tap, extensive drinks menu, and delectable food choices once thought entirely confined to the period of the Reagan Administration, Joshua Tree has something for everyone.
- DO-020 $30 Gift Certificate – Pizza Mercato (Greenwich Village)
Enjoy pizza from a life-sustaining pizza source for NYU students everywhere.
