3. Eligibility

Current NYU School of Law students, faculty, and administrators are eligible for License agreements. Priority for student housing is given to students who maintain full-time matriculation. Vacant spaces in an apartment may be filled with other students or with participants in NYU programs and other eligible persons in the sole discretion of the Department of Residence Services. You must be in good standing throughout the License period, or NYU may terminate your license.

4. Fees and Payments

(A) You are responsible for all charges for the full License period and will be billed on a semester basis. You will receive an invoice from the NYU Bursar which will include the amounts due for housing and all other charges due under or as a consequence of this License. Payment is due as invoiced. Failure to make payment on or before the date payment is due may result in termination of your License.

(B) For residents of D'Agostino Hall and Hayden Hall, housing fees include utility charges: i.e., electric and/or gas service, local and long-distance telephone service, cable, and ResNet service. Assessments for damages to your apartment will be added to your NYU Bursar account.

(C) Information regarding NYU installment payment plans, including interest rates and penalties for late or nonpayment, and how to arrange to credit your student account will be sent to you. Unless your account is fully paid when due or you have arranged an acceptable payment plan with the NYU Bursar, your account will be placed in arrears, which may restrict your ability to register, obtain academic records, participate in job placement programs or receive a degree. You also will be responsible for all costs incurred by NYU, including collection agency and legal fees in collection of past due payments owed under this license. Interest will be assessed by the University for unpaid balances. In the event that you are in arrears, this license will be terminable forthwith at the sole discretion of the NYU School of Law Department of Residence Services.

5. Conditions of Use

You shall use the assigned space only for dormitory purposes as permitted under Department of Residence Services' rules and policies. Specifically prohibited actions include, but are not limited to, smoking, the burning of incense/candles/other types of open flame devices, excessive noise, pets, exterior radio and television antennae/satellite dishes/cables, possession or use of firearms or explosives, possession or use of narcotics, illegal possession or inappropriate use of alcohol or controlled substances, placing items on window ledges, removal of or tampering with window guards, possession of an evergreen or other flammable decoration, throwing items out of windows, inappropriate use of fire extinguishers, solicitations, removing School of Law furniture or equipment. Free standing halogen torchiere pole lamps or halogen desk lamps, and tubular halogen bulbs are strictly forbidden in School of Law residences due to the potential danger of fire associated with their use.

6. Occupancy and Guests

(A) If it is necessary for the Department of Residence Services to make an assignment to a vacant space in an apartment, every effort will be made to provide you with notice of the new occupant's arrival. Although the Department of Residence Services will make every effort to provide advance notice, any vacant space may be assigned to another individual selected by the Department of Residence Services without prior notification to you or any other student sharing the apartment. You agree that you will not interfere with any new occupant's use or enjoyment of the assigned space or common areas.

(B) You may not transfer or assign any rights that you may have under this License to any other person. Any attempt to do so is null and void and will permit the Department of Residence Services to terminate this License immediately.

(C) Guests must be accompanied by the resident/licensee or possess a Guest Pass in order to enter the building. The Front Desk Attendant can also call your room phone to announce a guest and obtain permission to allow your guest(s) to go up to your apartment unescorted. Overnight guests are permitted for no more than seven (7) nights per 30 day period.

The resident/licensee may obtain a Guest Pass for each guest by stopping by their respective building office and filling out a Guest Pass Request Form. If your guest is staying for more than three (3) consecutive nights, written permission from your apartment mate(s) is required before the Guest Pass Request Form can be processed. In addition to building access, the Guest Pass allows the use of University Transportation services. Note: Guest Passes cannot be obtained by telephone or email. You must visit the office in person.

(D) Hours of Visitation:

Regular Hours Guests:

1. A Regular Hours Guest is anyone who is present in a residence hall or in a room/suite in which they have not been assigned to live between the hours of 9:00 am and 11:00 pm (EST) on weeknights (Sunday-Thursday) and 9:00 am to 1:00am (EST) on weekends (Friday and Saturday).
2. A resident is permitted to have up to three (3) guests in their apartment at any time during Regular Hours without the prior permission of their apartment mates provided there is no interference with the rights of an apartment mate.
3. All Regular Hours Guests must have followed the appropriate access procedures as set forth above.

Late Hours / Overnight Guests:

1. A Late Hours/Overnight Guest is anyone who is present in a residence hall or in an apartment in which they have not been assigned to live between the hours of 11:00 pm and 9 am (EST) on weeknights (Sunday-Thursday) and 1:00 am to 9:00am (EST) on weekends (Friday and Saturday).
2. A Resident Host must have the permission of their apartment mate(s) to have a Late Hours/Overnight Guest if the visit is for three (3) days or longer.
3. Even if permission from the apartment mate is granted, the guest may be asked to leave the premises as a result of complaints about the actions/presence of a Late Hours/Overnight Guest by an apartment mate, which interfere with his or her academic/personal well-being as well as the community members.
4. A Resident Host may have no more than three (3) Late Hours/Overnight Guests at one time.
5. A Resident Host may not have a Late Hours/Overnight Guest – whether the same or a different person - for more than three (3) consecutive nights or for more than seven (7) nights per 30 day period.
6. The same individual may not be a Late Hours/Overnight Guest in the residence hall system for more than seven (7) nights per calendar month, whether with the same or different resident hosts.
7. All Late Hours/Overnight Guests must have followed the appropriate access procedures as set forth above in this document.

(E) Policy Violations:

All guests in a University residence hall are expected to abide by all University and Office of Residence Services procedures and regulations:

1. A Resident Host is responsible for the actions of their guest(s) in the residence hall building, apartment, and common area in which that host resides and will be held accountable for any violations of University policy and/or for any theft, injury to person or property resulting from the behavior of their guests, regardless of whether that guest is a fellow University student or not.

2. University students who engage in disruptive or volatile behavior while a guest in a residence hall or an apartment/room will also personally be held accountable for their actions.
3. Matters involving the problematic behavior of a guest may be managed through administrative actions (e.g. Classification of guest as Persona Non Grata), through the University student conduct process, or may be referred to local law enforcement when deemed appropriate.
4. Should a guest who engages in volatile behavior be a student at another college or university, New York University reserves the right to report that individual's behavior to their home institution.
5. Late / Overnight guests are not to sleep in lounges or other public spaces.

(F) Apartment mate(s) Interference:

1. Whenever a resident has a concern about the presence of a guest in the room, they should approach the apartment mate whom the guest is visiting to express their concerns and to seek to resolve the issues.
2. Should Residence Services staff receive (1) a complaint that the presence of a guest (Regular or Late Hours) is unreasonably interfering with the academic or personal well-being of the residents of the residence hall or a particular apartment mate(s) or (2) a complaint that the students sharing a living space are unable to agree on the time, date, frequency, and duration of each other's visitors, the Residence Services staff may restrict the presence of guests in that apartment until such time that the residents are able to come to a mutually satisfactory agreement about visitation.
3. As deemed appropriate, such matters will be addressed through informal discussions with apartment mate(s) or through formal mediation. Should such efforts fail, the Residence Services staff shall have the authority to establish reasonable parameters for visitation and all residents of that apartment will be expected to adhere to those terms. Failure to abide by those conditions may likely result in the reassignment of the student who violates the terms set forth and may also subject that student to disciplinary action should their guests be involved in a violation of an University policy.

7. Right of Assignment Change and Access

NYU School of Law reserves the right at any time, in its sole discretion, to change or cancel any space assignment at any time during the term or to enter any room to:

- (A) Consolidate partially-filled apartments.
- (B) Ascertain, upon reasonable cause, whether repair is or may be necessary.
- (C) Inspect for compliance with health, fire and building codes or University regulations, and (D) handle what the Law School, in its sole discretion, deems to be necessary. Every reasonable effort will be made in such cases to provide you with adequate notice and, in cases where changes of assignment are necessary, a comparable apartment type.

8. Condition of Premises

- (A) You specifically agree to be responsible for damage or other losses to the building, room, and furniture, except for damage or loss from ordinary wear and tear. You are responsible for the care of the assigned room, and every resident is expected to report any repair needed to the Department of Residence Services. Fixtures, furniture, equipment, and other effects that require maintenance work should be reported immediately.
- (B) You shall maintain your apartment in a clean, safe, and undamaged condition at all times. Apartment mates will be jointly responsible for cleaning and maintaining kitchens, bathrooms, or other common areas. When vacating, you shall remove all personal property and leave the apartment and any furnishings clean and, save for ordinary wear and tear, in the same condition as found. The University may dispose of any personal property left after the end of the license period and may assess cleaning, repair, and disposal charges against the licensees of individual rooms or equally among those assigned to an apartment unless individual responsibility is established before departure.

9. Noise Policy

All activities within the residential community must be conducted in a manner considerate of apartment mates and neighbors. Parties, gatherings, loud music playing, and other activities potentially disturbing to residents must end by 11:00 p.m. from Sunday–Thursday and 1:00 a.m. (EST) on Fridays and Saturdays. Parties or gatherings may not be conducted in the hallways under any circumstances. During daytime hours, noise should be kept to a reasonable level. Twenty-four hour courtesy hours are always in effect. Two weeks prior to and during the exam period, all residents must adhere to a 24-hour quiet policy. Late-night complaints, i.e., that arise outside of Residence Services Office hours (9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. EST), should be given to the Door Attendant on duty. The Door Attendant will assist the complainant or contact the appropriate administrator. Otherwise, noise complaints should be submitted in writing to the Department Residence Services.

- (A) At that time the Director, or his/her designee, may meet with the parties involved, discuss with staff, and review any and all log reports pertaining to the complaint. A first warning letter may be sent to the offending party.
- (B) A second complaint will result in a meeting to discuss disciplinary action with possible referral to the attention of the Director of Student Affairs.
- (C) A third complaint may result in a mandatory room change or eviction.

10. Personal Property

You are responsible for your personal property, and it is recommended that you carry property/renters insurance. The School of Law is not liable for loss or damage to your personal property whatever the cause of that damage or loss. Use of the laundry room or any other facility outside of your assigned space apartment is undertaken at your sole risk or the sole risk of your guest(s), and the School of Law will not be liable for any injury to person, or loss, theft of, or damage to, any property suffered by you or your guest(s) while using such facilities. The School of Law shall not be responsible for the loss of or damage to any property, article or package entrusted to, or left with, any employee of the School of Law or its agents or for any theft committed or for any other act or damage by any such employee whose services may be furnished or obtained by the School of Law. Any personal property left in your space after you vacate will be disposed of immediately, and you will be charged for removal of that property (see Section 9).

If this License is terminated because of your failure to fully perform any of your obligations under this License, you will continue to be responsible for all fees due under or as a consequence of this License for the entire original License period.

14. Failure to Vacate

Unless your License period is extended, you will vacate your assigned space on or before the end of the License period. If the space is not vacated by the end of the License period (see Section 2), you are responsible for all costs and direct or indirect damages suffered by the School of Law in connection with your failure to vacate. Those costs and damages include, but are not limited to, the cost of accommodations for each student who would otherwise have occupied the assigned space, payment of use and occupancy of the space at a monthly rate equal to the then fair market value of the space and all expenses, including legal fees, incurred by NYU in connection with removing you from your assigned space. The School of Law's damages resulting from your failure to vacate the space on or before the end of the license period shall be an amount not less than $350 per day, determined by the Department of Residence Services in its sole discretion. - (E) Any previous or collateral licenses or understandings between the parties regarding the assigned space are merged in this License, which is the sole license between you and the Department of Residence Services regarding the assigned space.
- (F) No diminution or abatement of housing fees, or other compensation, shall be claimed or allowed for loss, inconvenience, or discomfort caused by war or compliance with any order, rule, or regulation of any civil or military authority, or arising from the making of repairs, alterations, additions or improvements in or to the premises, or by reason of any space taken to comply with any law, ordinance, or order of governmental authority.
- (G) There shall be no diminution or abatement of the housing fees or any other compensation for interruption or curtailment of provided services when such interruption or curtailment shall be due to accidents, or to the making of alterations, improvements, additions or repairs deemed desirable by the School of Law or necessary to be made, or to inability or difficulty in securing supplies or labor, or to any other cause that is not gross negligence on the part of the School of Law.
