

Brown Bag Lunch Speaker Series 2007-2008

Sponsored by: NYU School of Law Trade Regulation LL.M. Program

Guest Speaker

Date: September 18, 2007

Speaker: Daniel Rubinfeld, Robert L. Bridges Professor of Law and Economics, UC Berkley Law School; Visiting Faculty, NYU School of Law

Topic: How Economists are used in Antitrust Litigation

Informal Gathering

Date: September 24, 2007

Speaker: Thomas Cheng, Professor, University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law

Topic: The Effort to Draft an Antitrust Law in Hong Kong

Guest Speaker

Date: October 23, 2007

Speaker: J. Douglas Richards, Partner, Pomerantz Haudek Block Grossman & Gross

Topic: The Future of Antitrust Class Actions in Light of Twombly

Guest Speaker

Date: November 20, 2007

Speaker: Kirti Mehta, Cartels Director in the Competition Directorate of the European Commission

Topic: Current Issues in Cartel Enforcement in Europe

Guest Speaker

Date: January 29, 2008

Speaker: Traci Medford-Rosow, Vice-President and Head, Worldwide Intellectual Property Litigation, Pfizer

Topic: The Problems that Arise in Protecting Intellectual Property Rights in a Diverse Set of Legal Regimes

Guest Speaker

Date: February 26, 2008

Speaker: James Toupin, General Counsel, US Patent and Trademark Office

Topic: The Role of Government, Particularly the USPTO, in Intellectual Property Cases in the Supreme Court

Guest Speaker

Date: March 25, 2008

Speaker: Patricia Martone, Partner, Ropes & Gray's Intellectual Property Group; Adjunct Professor, NYU School of Law

Topic: Instituting and Managing Multi-Jurisdictional Patent Litigation (U.S. & Japan)