Monday-Friday: 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. Not open on weekends. (Hours subject to change.)

Students need an NYU ID Card to gain access to our buildings and University facilities. We recommend that you submit a photo online, and then pick up your ID when it is ready. Visit https://photoid.nyu.edu/ for specific instructions on photo submission; to submit the photo, log-in using your NYU NetID. When you arrive on campus, you can obtain your NYU Card at the NYU Card Center with proof of identification such as a state driver’s license or a passport. If you prefer, you may have your picture taken at the Card Center.

The photo that appears on your NYU ID Card is accessible to faculty and administrators and used for the seating charts provided to faculty members to help them to identify students in their classes. With your authorization, the photograph on your NYU Card will be included in the Law School’s online Directory. International Tax and Tax students: these photos may, with your authorization, be made available to employers as part of OCI (on-campus interviewing), so business attire is suggested.

At the workshop, OGS will verify that your immigration documents are correct and explain your legal responsibilities. The workshop will last approximately one hour. Arrive at least 10 minutes early, as latecomers are NOT admitted.

To sign up for a workshop and for required documentation, go to http://www.nyu.edu/global/international-immigration-services/students/inbound-to-nyc/pre-arrival/mandatory-check-in.html. Note that you must be signed into your NYU account. You should also make a note of the workshop’s time as OGS will not send you a confirmation email.
