

The Weinfeld Program

A Lasting Commitment to NYU Law's Vision

Judge Edward Weinfeld '21

Judge Edward Weinfeld's storied career places him among NYU Law's finest alumni, and his impact on the legal profession is a profound credit to our institution.

A lifelong New Yorker, Weinfeld opened his own practice in the city after graduation. In 1950, he was appointed by President Truman as a judge on the US District Court for the Southern District of New York, a position he held for nearly four decades. His shrewd reasoning helped him craft detailed and persuasive decisions that were rarely reversed. Justice William Brennan Jr. of the US Supreme Court once said of Weinfeld, "There is general agreement on bench and bar throughout the nation that there is no better judge on any court."

When he died at age 86, Weinfeld was the oldest active federal district judge in the country. The Weinfeld Program honors his incredible achievements and recognizes our loyal donors, whose support ensures NYU Law will continue to educate future giants in the legal profession for generations to come.

The Weinfeld Program is NYU School of Law's most prestigious donor recognition society. Instituted in 1989, it honors the legacy of alumnus Judge Edward Weinfeld by recognizing alumni and friends whose generosity exemplifies Judge Weinfeld's dedication and commitment to the Law School.
