Re: Fall 2015

Welcome to New York University School of Law! We are thrilled to have you join our community and look forward to meeting you soon.

On Monday, August 10, 2015 -- from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. -- we are hosting a new upper-class student Orientation designed to inform transfer and visiting students about the administrative resources available to you. At this session, we will describe additional opportunities for you to get to know one another as well as other students at the Law School. Transfer students interested in participating in the Writing Competition for the journals and the Moot Court Board will receive information on that process during the program as well.

This program is mandatory for transfer students. A tentative schedule is attached.

Visiting students who wish to attend all or part of the program should contact the Office of Student Affairs law.studentaffairs@nyu.edu, no later than August 7, to register.

If you have any questions regarding the Orientation program, please contact Tracee Nwafor, Assistant Director, Office of Student Affairs, at (212) 998-6295 or tracee.nwafor@nyu.edu.

Enjoy the summer.
