Other Helpful Ideas

- PILC internship report database – Contains information about past internships, including student and supervisor contact information.
- Missions to the UN - Professor Jose Alvarez has current and up-to-date contacts here.
- Follow your interests and leads - Attend events, perform informational interviews, research online and don't feel shy to reach out to people explaining your interest in doing an internship with them!

For more helpful information, check the International Public Interest Handbook on the PILC website. If you did not attend the event in January entitled “Tips on Finding International Internships”, you can find a video of the event here.
