

NYU SCHOOL OF LAW
REQUEST TO REGISTER FOR LAW COURSE BY NON-LAW NYU STUDENTS

Spring 2026: Accepting forms starting Friday, December 5, 2025.
Notification will be sent by Wednesday, January 14, 2026.

Late requests will be accepted by the Office of Academic Services until January 28, 2026.

Students currently enrolled in other graduate divisions of NYU (other than candidates for Law School dual degrees) are invited to enroll for courses at the Law School. They will need to secure permission of 1) the Department Chair or Director at the school in which they are currently enrolled, and 2) the instructor teaching the particular Law School course. If you are a student enrolled in the MAIR program with GSAS, please see page 2 for a list of Law School courses that do not require permission of instructor.

The Senior Director of Academic Services will confirm availability of space in the class after registration at the Law School is complete. Notification of course request decisions will be sent by January 14, 2026 and late requests will be accepted by the Office of Academic Services until January 28, 2026.

Please note that you will be required to fulfill all of the requirements for each course, including the taking of examinations and the submission of required papers. Failure to satisfy course requirements will result in the denial of subsequent registration.

All students taking Law School exams are required to use a laptop. See the following website for details: <http://www.law.nyu.edu/technology/students/requirements>
