

FALL 2026 HOLIDAY MAKE-UP SCHEDULE

According to the academic calendar approved by the faculty, classes are not suspended on all holidays. Nonetheless, we know that many people (students and faculty) may be observing certain holidays.

In keeping with past practice, we have prepared a make-up schedule for only the EVE and FIRST day of various holidays. This schedule was created based on the fall holidays observed by the New York City Department of Education. Of particular interest to some may be the following holidays during fall 2026:

- Rosh Hashanah
 - Friday, September 11 (sundown) – no direct class impact
- Yom Kippur
 - Sunday, September 20 (sundown) – no direct class impact
 - Monday, September 21 – see the make-up schedule below
- Diwali
 - Sunday, November 8 – no direct class impact

Note: No make-up schedule has been created for the holidays that have no direct impact on classes.

If you intend to cancel one or more classes in observance of the fall holidays for which there is a make-up schedule, please adhere to the following assigned days and times in which to make up your class. By strictly adhering to this fixed make-up calendar, it is possible to avoid make-up class conflicts for students that would otherwise occur.

For those who do not cancel class, consistent with the Law School's general policy, please record your fall 2026 class. Observing students will follow the normal practice of accessing the recording and watching the missed class at a later time.

If you plan to schedule a make-up class, please reserve a space via the Event Management System. Please keep in mind your usual room will not always be available. The make-up class you schedule may meet for a shorter or longer time than the make-up block. However, your make-up class must meet for the same number of minutes as the canceled class.

RE: Yom Kippur
