Event Objective

This panel will bring together government officials, expert external counsel, and in-house legal and compliance professionals for an off-the-record discussion on enforcement issues impacting the prediction markets.

PCCE Conference Rule

Participants are free to use the information received, but all content at this PCCE event is not for attribution, in whole or in part. Specifically, neither the identity of the person who makes the comment nor his or her affiliation (including whether he or she is a government or private-sector employee) may be revealed. PCCE does not videotape or otherwise record an event (or any segment of an event) governed by this rule, unless otherwise noted in the program.

To promote future communication, PCCE publishes conference and round¬table programs that include a list of speakers. PCCE takes photographs of speakers and attendees, which may be included on the PCCE website, on social media, and in our brochure. Your attendance at PCCE events constitutes permission for us to use photographic and identifying information for such purposes.

Continuing Legal Education

We anticipate that this event will be approved for up to 1 New York State CLE credit for those who attend the entire event, the exact number to be confirmed. It is appropriate for newly admitted attorneys, as well as experienced attorneys.
