

Building Power in the Public Sector:

DEI and Anti-Racism at
Environmental Jobs in Government

NOVEMBER 1, 2021 • 1-2 PM ET

A conversation to discuss what city, state, and federal agencies that focus on environmental law are doing to support diversity and inclusion and the path forward for the governmental and public sector in advancing equity.

Introduction:

ANDRES JIMENEZ, Executive Director, Green 2.0

Opening Remarks:

ATTORNEY GENERAL KARL RACINE, Washington, D.C.

TRICIA JEFFERSON, Acting Deputy Associate General Counsel, Office of General Counsel, Environmental Protection Agency

CHRISTOPHE COURCHESNE, Deputy Chief, Energy and Environment Bureau, Massachusetts AG's Office

SANDRA JEFFERSON GRANNUM, Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer, New York State Office of the Attorney General

ANTONIA PEREIRA, Senior Counsel, Environmental Law Division, New York City Law Department

LISA GARCIA (Moderator), Director, Fix, the Climate Solutions Lab at Grist

State Energy &
Environmental Impact Center

Institute for Policy Integrity
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

CENTER FOR DIVERSITY, INCLUSION, AND BELONGING
NYU SCHOOL OF LAW

Columbia Law School | COLUMBIA CLIMATE SCHOOL
SABIN CENTER FOR CLIMATE CHANGE LAW

NEW YORK
CITY BAR

COLUMBIA ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY • COLUMBIA FIRST GENERATION PROFESSIONALS • CUNY ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE COALITION • FORDHAM'S ENVIRONMENTAL LAW ADVOCATES • NYU ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY • NYU LAW AND GOVERNMENT SOCIETY • PACE ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY • ST. JOHN'S ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY