

FALL 2021 RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY MAKE-UP SCHEDULE

According to the academic calendar, approved by the faculty, classes are not suspended on religious holidays. Nonetheless, we know that many people (students and faculty) may be observing religious holidays.

In keeping with past practice, we have prepared a make-up schedule for only the EVE and FIRST day of the various religious holidays. This schedule was created based on the fall holidays observed by the New York City Department of Education. Of particular interest to some may be the following religious holidays during fall 2021:

- Eid al-Adha- Occurred before classes started (July 19 & 20)
- Rosh Hashanah:
  - Monday, September 6 (sundown) – (Labor Day) NO DIRECT CLASS IMPACT; and
  - Tuesday, September 7 - See the make-up Schedule Below
- Yom Kippur:
  - Wednesday, September 15 (sundown) - See the make-up Schedule Below; and
  - Thursday, September 16 – See the make-up Schedule Below

Note: No make-up schedule has been created for the holiday of Eid al-Adha in 2021, due to this holiday occurring before fall classes begin. The eve of Rosh Hashanah falls on day that does not impact the class schedule.

If you intend to cancel one or more classes in observance of the fall religious holidays of Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur, please adhere to the following assigned days and times in which to make up your class.

By strictly adhering to this fixed make-up calendar, it is possible to avoid make-up class conflicts for students that would otherwise occur.

For those who do not cancel class, consistent with the Law School's general policy, please record your fall 2021 class. Observing students will follow the normal practice of accessing the recording and watching the missed class at a later time.

Please note for classes that meet for a longer time than the scheduled make-up block allows, you may either schedule the make-up class to go longer or you may schedule two make-up classes.
