- If you need to modify your loan amounts after submitting your request in Albert, you must email the Office of Student Financial Services to make a request at law.finaid@nyu.edu. Your request should include:
 - Subject Line: Loan Correction
 - Your full name and student id number (ex. N12345789)
 - The loan(s) you wish to have modified (Unsubsidized, Grad PLUS, private)
 - Corrected amount for the loan(s) you are requesting to be modified.
- Loans are disbursed in two equal amounts at the beginning of each semester. All educational loan disbursements will be applied toward your University charges first; then, any excess amount will be refunded to you from the University Bursar.
- If you anticipate a refund, we STRONGLY encourage you to sign up for direct deposit.
- Students who wish to participate in LRAP after graduation must take out federal student loans during their time at the Law School. Private loans will not be eligible for coverage under LRAP, if you qualify for federal loans. If you have questions about LRAP, please contact our office.
- To maximize your LRAP eligibility, you should reduce your borrowing to account for your student contribution. If you are not sure what your student contribution is, you will find it on the top of the second page of your financial aid award letter you received from our office.
- There are private loan products available. Students interested in exploring private loan options will find some information in the Loans and Lenders section of our website.
- During mid-July, you will notice updates to your fall bill by the Office of the Bursar and that the bursar's payment deadline is August 2nd. While that is the official deadline, please note that all Law students have unofficially until the first day of classes of each semester to pay their bill. As loans are disbursed no earlier than 10 days before the start of classes, Law students will have an unofficial date of August 30, 2022 to pay the Fall 2022 bill and January 17, 2023 for the Spring 2023 bill. No penalties or late fees will be applied to law students who pay by the first day of classes in each semester.
